

Bruno Grajales is an associate at Arias SLP. He has five years of experience gained at national and international law firms in Mexico City and Madrid.

He has acted as counsel in civil and commercial trials before Mexican courts. He has also advised domestic and international companies in competition and antitrust matters. He currently acts as counsel and tribunal assistant in cases administered by the main arbitral institutions.

Bruno holds a law degree from the Universidad Iberoamericana (Mexico City). He also holds an LL.M. in International Commercial Arbitration from Stockholm University and a postgraduate degree in Amparo law from the Universidad Panamericana (Mexico City).

He is a qualified lawyer in Mexico since 2017.

Bruno Grajales
Arias SLP

Languages

Spanish, English

Nationality

Mexico, Spain

Representative matters

- Representing a Spanish company in a dispute arising from a loan agreement granted to a Spanish vehicle company (ICC, Madrid, Spanish law, English)
- Representing a Latin American subsidiary of a German automotive and arms manufacturer in an arbitration against a Latin American state-owned petroleum company in relation to a dispute arising from an agreement for the construction, operation and maintenance of a training and simulation centre for offshore oil production (ICC, Latin American city, law of a Latin American country, Spanish)
- Representing a Mexican bank in court procedures related to the collection of debt arising from loan agreements (Mexican courts)
- Representing the Mexican subsidiary of an international bank in court procedures related to the collection of debt arising from loan agreements (Mexican courts)
- Representing a Mexican marketing company in a court procedure against a hotel chain in relation to a dispute arising from an IT services agreement (Mexican courts)
- Representing a Mexican company in a court procedure in relation to a dispute arising from a digital marketing services agreement (Mexican courts)

arias

- Representing Latin American individuals in a court procedure related to the invalidity of a testament in Mexico (Mexican courts)
- Advising Mexican individuals in a corporate dispute to recover real estate assets (Mexican courts)
- Advising a Latin American family to recover real estate assets in Mexico (Mexican courts)
- Advising a Mexican supermarket chain in a merger control procedure (Mexican competition authority)
- Advising a European pharmaceutical company in a merger control procedure (Mexican competition authority)
- Advising a Mexican railway company in an antitrust procedure (Mexican competition authority)
- Advising a Mexican bank in an antitrust procedure (Mexican competition authority)
- Advising a Mexican grain company in an antitrust procedure (Mexican competition authority)
- Advising a foreign integral security solutions company in a merger control procedure (Mexican competition authority)

Professional memberships

- Spanish and Ibero-American Arbitration Club (CEIA)